

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Aims:

- To provide insight, advice and support to family members of autistic children and young people before, during and after diagnosis.
- Explore a child's unique experiences, and suggest practical ways in which their differences can be accommodated and supported.

WORKSHOP FORMAT

- Online via Microsoft Teams
- Workshop spread across six sessions
- Duration of sessions: Three hours
- Part one of workshop: Presentation
- Part two of workshop: Opportunity for questions

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Family members and others closely associated with the care and support of the child. Professionals may only attend in their capacity as parents or carers.

SESSION SCHEDULE

Session 1 – Introduction to the Neurodiversity approach. Provides the foundation and context for the other sessions.

Session 2 – Autistic Thinking. Explores how differences in brain structure can generate some unique and individual styles of thinking, and offers practical advice on how to support some areas of difficulty.

Session 3 – Autistic Communication. Discusses autistic perspectives on the use and processing of communication and ideas for adapting interactive styles in order to respect and accommodate them.

Session 4 – Autistic Social Interaction.

The focus is on rethinking social expectations and helping autistic people develop relationships in an authentically autistic way.

Session 5 – Autistic Sensory Perception.

Demonstrates how atypical sensory perception is manifested in stims, how to interpret them, and suggests things to try in the absence of viable strategies created by the person themselves.

Session 6 – Behaviour. Demonstrates how accepting, understanding and adapting to how children and young people see the world can dramatically reduce anxiety and behaviours of concern.
